In this great jubilee celebration the consecrated life, rediscovering its role as a sign of life in communion, shows the contemporary world the response that God himself gives to the person who yearns for an authentic relationship with him and others. In fact, the human person needs communion and total happiness. In Christ alone is a person open to the grace of fulfilment.

There is a clear connection between consecrated life and mission. The desire to follow Jesus closely, which led to the emergence of consecrated life in the Church, responds to his call to take up the cross and follow him, to imitate his dedication to the Father and his service and love, to lose our life so as to gain it. Since Christ's entire existence had a missionary character, so too, all ...
