This is a paragraph of Bertrand Russell's book "The Conquest Of Happiness" i've seen that part of the people with this personality in childhood experienced a lack of love in childhood that might make us trouble in the future. Obviously the MBTI don't determine our full personality but is something that all need to acknowledge and meditate to improve in our lives as we grow up: "The child who ...

The smartest book on happiness we have ever read. Warning, though: this fine drink of aged wine has its floating pieces of cork. What we mean is that Russell, unfortunately, had a number of sexist views that were part of his culture and from which he didn't quite extricate himself totally. So be prepared for these small and occasional passages. But please don't toss the wine just because of ...
